

Attire

For Home

- Appropriately fitted (not too loose baggy or too revealing) top, please avoid inappropriate graphics.
- Riding Breeches
- Tall boots
- Hair pulled back into pony tail, braid, or in a hairnet
- Your horse should be dressed in a clean saddle pad. (Yes, they can be reused but once they are DIRTY please switch out with a clean one. You wouldn't want to rub old sweat, dirt and dead skin cells into your body every time you ride. If you need help cleaning your pads/wraps we have laundering options available at the barn!)

For Clinics

- Fitted, collard shirt of neutral colors. (Great time to wear logo'd ones!)
- Tan or sometimes black breeches.
- Cleaned tall boots
- Belt
- Hair should be in a hairnet up in your helmet or braided down.
- Tack should be "Show clean"
- Horse should be "Show or close-to show" groomed with hoof polish on.

For Shows

- Collard show shirt (Hunters / Eq should wear white, or the shirt should have a white bib. Jumpers have a little bit more flexibility to style & colors)
- Show Jacket (Eq: Black or Navy. Hunters: Black, Navy, Hunter Green, Some Grey or other neutral colors as long as not too bright. Jumpers: Traditional colors or some brighter ones accepted)
- Tan or White Pants
- Belt
- Polished, clean boots
- Hair should be in a hairnet (Hunters/Eq: Must be pulled up into your helmet. Jumpers: Can be braided down or pulled up)
- Clean saddle pad (Hunters/Eq must use a fitted white pad. Jumpers may use neutral colors or logo'd pads)
- Horse should be exceptionally well groomed & polished. Hunters & Equitation should be braided if at a rated show.
- Horse Should have all clean tack, polished protective boots, hoof oil.
